Dear Friends, Can you believe that the summer is almost upon us?

Before coming to Peover I would have been spending my days walking around the lanes and chatting with tourists and fishermen around the harbour next to my old parish; this year of course I am looking forward to walking around our villages, jumping over styles and exploring the paths that wind across our beautiful fields amongst the sheep and cows.

However, you like to spend your long summer days the summer is for many of us an opportunity to pause. It is a moment to take a break and smell the roses. A time perhaps to actually embrace the moment and to remember as the Bible teaches us that: 'there is a time for everything, and a season for every activity under heaven' [Ecclesiastes 3:1].

These words remind me that it is God who has appointed the times and seasons, who walks with us in all the events of our lives, the happy and the sad, the easy and the difficult.

Of course, sometimes we may wonder about that. It is understandable to ask where God is as we look at what is going on in the world around us or when our own lives become challenged or chaotic.

Sometimes it can look to us as though God is not doing all that well at all. But, however things may appear, I still believe that the truth is that God is always standing with us whether it is a dark winter's night or a joyful, peaceful long summer's day, it is this that gives me hope.

The secret is, I think, to discover, accept and appreciate God's perfect timing and desire for us all to simply find moments of peace and rest in his presence. To remember too, that we live in a world of change and our journey along life's pathways will always be one when we may occasionally stumble or take a wrong turn.

The one constant of course, is the one who accompanies us along the way. God does not change. And that means that we can count on him always to be with us night and day.

'He has made everything beautiful in its time.' [Ecclesiastes 3:11]. God has set everything for its time so may we all treat ourselves with some time over the next few weeks to really take in the beauty of God's creation around us and in each other too.

Make the best of each event, every church service, every conversation had over the garden gate, every walk taken and even the little flowers that pop up in the bushes at the side of the road. It is there where we might discover some reflection of God's presence and grace.

So, take some time this summer to enjoy the moment. And hold on to joy and hope in the one who loves us and who promises that where we trust in him, he will provide for all of our needs.

Happy Summer Everyone!
Prayers and best wishes,
Fr Murray

Softly growing in the garden of life,
Are beautiful flowers from God,
Lovingly planted inside our hearts,
Lining the pathways we trod.

These flowers shaped by their creator,
Are such a reflection of Him,
How could one look at their beauty
And not see that God is within?

These flowers tattooing a message,
Across the fields of our soul,
Knowing that within their presence,
God's wonderful peace can grow.

As gently the winds brush their petals,
The fragrance of God whispers near,
As our lives drift in many directions,
We know that His flowers stay dear.

"You're never alone in my garden,
My love is displayed in their hues,
Reach out and discover their beauty,
I made these flowers for you."

Softly strolling in the garden of life,
Blessed are the pathways we trod,
Lovingly planted from inside His heart,
Are the beautiful flowers of God.

Safeguarding

St Oswald's and St Lawrence's take their duty and obligation to protect all extremely seriously. We have adopted the national Church of England's robust procedures and guidelines. You can find out more about the national policies and procedures at www.churchofengland.org/safeguarding. The Parish Safeguarding Officer for St Oswald's is Tracey Wallace. If you have any safeguarding concerns or issues concerning a safeguarding matter within the parish please contact Tracey in confidence on 07724 840753 or by email at ktwallace@hotmail.co.uk

In our prayers...

At all our services we ask God's blessing on those known to us who are ill or infirm, particularly those with whom we have close connections as members of the congregation. If you would like to be named in our prayers of intercessions because you are undergoing treatment or know of someone who has requested prayer please contact Fr Murray or our Reader, Ann.

Daily Hope phone line

Daily Hope offers music, prayers and reflections as well as full worship services from the Church of England at the end of a telephone line.

The line is free and available 24 hours a day on 0880 804 8044.

Reaching Out

Dear Lord Jesus, we remember the work of your disciples who served You faithfully during the early days of the Church. They went out among the people, who were often hostile, and spoke of their faith. They also encouraged others by their written testimonies. Together, they spread the word of Your teaching and of the joy of serving You, regardless of their own fate and well-being.

We ask You to help us today to continue Your work by witness and example. May we continue to draw comfort and inspiration from Your teaching, and so acknowledge and confess our faith wherever we go and to those we meet.

GARDEN PARTY due to be held on 3 JULY 2021

How disappointing! After much deliberating, we have opted to postpone the Garden Party for the time being because of the continuing Covid restrictions. We are hoping that as the situation improves we will be able to hold the event later in the year. So, hold fire with the baking and continue to collect books and raffle prizes

FLOWER ROTA

Many Weddings will be taking place at St. Oswald's during July and August and I am sure we will enjoy seeing the wedding flowers again.

However, there are two dates when there are no weddings and

Ellie Beharrell will do flowers on 1st August and Sylvia Hankinson on 22nd August.

I hope everyone will stay on the flower rota and I will contact you individually when dates are available.

If anyone wishes to put flowers in church, there are always vases on the Remembrance Book Table.

Prioritising

Martha cooked but Mary looked and sat at the Master's feet,
It's a story of old but we are told it's where man and God can meet.

So much to do but think it through there is a place for you and me,
To spend time with the Lord and be found in His word,
it's where we are meant to be.

So, find a place to seek His face where the Lord Himself is found
With a God who cares hears all our prayers, the place where grace abounds.

By Megan Carter

Sing to the Lord

Sing to the Lord a song of praise
Sing of the wonders that we see
His right hand and His holy arm
Have won for Him the victory.

He has revealed His salvation
Deliv'rance He has truly shown
Before all nations of the world
His mighty acts have been made known.

His faithful love, of limits free
Is seen unto the end of earth,
All peoples see His salvation
And all can sing with joy and mirth.

Make songs for God with human voice
With trumpets and the mighty horn
Sing praises to our God and king
To sunset from the break of dawn.

O let the rivers clap their hands
The hills ring out before the Lord
For lo, He judges righteously
His justice seen throughout the world!

The Rectory at St James the Least of All
My dear Nephew Darren

On getting to church at a social distance

Since your parishioners mostly live in an area of half a square mile, where their only concern in getting to church is whether to take the underpass, or to risk a dash across the ring road, you may have little understanding of the problems our folk have in travelling our long country lanes to church, especially as we are keeping our social distance from each other.

Several parishioners have decided that they cannot possibly share cars even with their own spouses, as in their 15-room homes they have successfully (and in some cases, happily) avoided each other for months. So, the lane outside the church has filled up each week with Mercedes nudging Audis, and Land Rovers easing in between Bentleys.

Others arrive on horseback. But they are careless about leaving their horses to graze in the churchyard, and I have had to remind them twice that flowers in memorial vases are not fodder. The horses do help to keep the grass down, but unfortunately our verger now objects to standing outside during Mattins, holding the reins of half a dozen horses. He says it is not part of his job description, which only confirms my view that there is entirely too much fuss these days about having job descriptions at all.

Major Crompton's devotion to his new sit-on lawnmower has inspired him to travel to church on it. Since he is unable to uncouple the mowing apparatus, the tarmac on his two-mile drive is acquiring interesting patterns. His drive at two miles per hour along narrow lanes means he arrives leading a procession of cars with drivers given the opportunity to exercise the Christian virtue of patience.

Mrs Pendleton, on the other hand, leads a small but select group from the Mothers' Union who are all keen cyclists. They all arrive on a whoosh of fresh air, their hair in total disarray, but with pink cheeks glowing with health. Nobody in church minds sitting near them, as anyone who can manage to peddle an old three-gear bicycle up the hill to our church is most unlikely to be sickening for anything.

Finally, of course, the majority arrive on foot, having negotiated fields, stiles and assorted cattle on the way. The countryside may well praise God, but one does wish they would not bring quite so much of it into church.

Please join the ‘St Oswald’s Lower Peover 100 Club’

Dating from 1269, St Oswald’s church has been central to the village of Lower Peover for centuries. Throughout that time, it has been the spiritual home of many people, and not just those living in the village itself.

It still fulfils that role today, a peaceful haven in an ever busier and complicated world. As a Grade 1 listed building, it enjoys a setting of particular importance, and the assumption is that it always will be. But escalating costs mean that we can no longer take that for granted. Buildings such as St Oswald’s are hugely expensive to maintain and ever-increasing running costs need to be found.

It is a sobering thought that our Parish Share (the money we pay to Chester Diocese for our church and a vicar) is £51,395. That is £988 each week. That is before any lighting, heating, maintenance etc. is taken into consideration, and, contrary to what many people still think, the State does not pay towards a church’s upkeep.

We launched the 100 Club in May 2008 and membership currently stands at 71, although it has been as high as 106. The club currently raises about £2,500 each year (after prizes) and really does make a huge difference to our resources. So far it has raised over £25,000 for the running costs of our church. And all for the minimal cost of £1 per week to members!

The 100 Club works in this way:

We collect £1 a week from each member per number held, which can be paid either as an annual fee of £52, or £13 per quarter, by standing order. Members are allocated individual numbers and each month two numbers are drawn. The first receives a prize of £70, the second receives £30. The remainder of the proceeds go to the church. You may individually hold more than one number and indeed, past winners have often had multiple holdings. It really is as simple as that!

The 100 Club is designed to appeal to regular churchgoers and those people who may not be able to worship regularly with us, but who also think it is important that the church remains open as an important part of village life.

We really would like to get our membership back up to at least 100 and hope that if you are reading this you may feel able to help – all for £1 per week! Please do join the 100 Club by completing the membership form at the back of this magazine or online at our website, and simply post it back to me.

Likewise, if you have any queries or questions about the 100 Club, please call me, Keith Phillips on 01270 878259 or mobile 07973 900032.
Email kphil61@hotmail.co.uk

Many congratulations to all our winners – and our thanks to all members who are currently supporting the 100 Club. Stay safe and thank you.
