Thought for the Month.

Dear Friends,

I write to you this morning for the very first time as your new vicar. I had envisaged a very different kind of beginning to my ministry here in Peover, at the very least, imagining a jolly good bun fight with you all at the church or the vicarage!

Alas of course, I have arrived at a time of pandemic. A time when many of our best laid plans have to be changed at the drop of a hat and when we are all not only having to come to terms with doing things in very new or different ways. But perhaps also having to stop doing those things that were once routine, made us feel secure, comforted us or brought us Joy.

I myself having been in isolated lockdown for five months, far away from my previous parishes, my friends and family, am only too aware of the sense of loneliness and anxiety this disease has and continues to inflict on so many of us.

Yet, I do believe that there is hope!

As I sat in the vicarage study pondering what to say to you today, I was reminded of a Bible story that we read in Church recently.

Despite having been penned over two thousand years ago, it is a story that for me seems to resonate profoundly with the situation we as individuals, families, a parish, and a nation, currently face.

It is a lovely story about Saint Peter, who, surrounded by the ravages and darkness of a storm, steps out in great faith and begins to walk on the waters of a lake to get to Jesus.

Peter, being Peter however, quickly gets distracted and takes his eyes off his Lord, becomes overwhelmed by the storm and begins to sink into the waters.

Then (and this is the bit I love) Jesus, seeing his friend begin to waver, goes towards Peter, reaches out and calmly lifts him to safety.

In a way many of us may have felt or may now be feeling a little like Peter, shaken or overwhelmed by the current situation around us.

But this story I hope, will act as a gentle reminder to us all that despite our current state of unknowing, all the uncertainty, or our very real and understandable anxieties and fears, we are not alone.

Jesus, as he did all those years ago for Peter, is still (even if it is sometimes hard to see him through the wind and the rain of this current storm) walking alongside us through all the ups and downs of life, and stands firm on his promises to lovingly reach out and hold us safe even when we begin to lose heart.

So my friends, may I encourage us all to keep the faith today, these troubled waters will one day pass and until that day does finally come; I pray that we can all find some peace and reassurance in the knowledge that God is not only walking alongside us through these challenging times, but is, and will forever be, a safe and welcoming harbour for each one of us in this and every storm we face.

Prayerfully Yours,
Fr Murray

In our prayers:

We pray for the life of our parish as we emerge from lockdown:

For the staff and pupils of Lower Peover Primary School and the Little House Nursery.
For our congregations at St Oswald's and St Lawrence's as we plan for the future.
For Fr Murray as he takes up his role as Vicar.

We hold in our prayers all whose lives have been affected by Covid-19 crisis:

Those due to be baptised at our church but who have had to postpone the service.
Those planning to get married and have had to defer the celebration
Families who have been unable to spend time with loved ones in hospital or care homes.
All who are vulnerable, disabled or unwell.
All who have been bereaved in recent months.

O God, the protector of all who trust in you, without whom nothing is strong, nothing is holy:
increase and multiply upon us your mercy;
that with you as our ruler and guide,
we may so pass through things temporal that we lose not our hold on things eternal;
through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen

(Prayer taken from Prayers for use during the coronavirus outbreak available at CofE.io/ChurchOnline)

Resources for personal prayer

While we may not be able to meet for regular worship there are many resources which we can use to maintain times of prayer and bible study.

The Book of Common Prayer offers prayers and readings for all occasions and the orders of Morning and Evening Prayer can be read aloud in one's own home. The Psalter which is included in the Book of Common Prayer identifies a psalm or selection of psalms for each day of the month.

Radio and television

The BBC offers a Daily Service on Radio 4 Long Wave every day at 9.45am as well as Sunday Worship at 8.10am on Sunday mornings on Radio 4. There is Choral Evensong on Radio 3 every Wednesday at 3.30pm which is repeated on Sundays at 3.00pm. In addition, Songs of Praise is televised on BBC1 at 1.15pm on Sunday. Programmes are also available on BBC iPlayer or the BBC Sounds app.

Digital Resources

There are several apps available for smartphones and tablets including the Church of England Daily Prayer app which offers Morning Prayer, Evening Prayer and Compline in either Contemporary or Traditional Language. Time to Pray similarly offers an Order for Prayer During The Day as well as an order for Night Prayer. The app Pray as you go offers a short daily audio meditation with music. The Church of England publishes a Prayer for the Day both as audio and text on its website as well as on several social media platforms. Many Church of England resources can be accessed through smart speakers such as Alexa or Google home by asking 'Alexa open The Church of England' or 'Hey Google, talk to the Church of England.' As well as answering questions, the apps can be asked to read a range of prayers along with such things as the Apostle's Creed and The Beatitudes.

Chester Cathedral will provide worship through online streaming at 5.30pm on Mondays, Tuesdays and Thursdays and at 10am on Sundays.

There are many Bible Study resources available as apps or on the web. The ones which we have mainly been using for Exploring the Word of God can be found on the following websites:

Yale Bible Study yalebiblestudy.org

The Bible Project bibleproject.com

St John's Timeline stjohnstimeline.co.uk

Finally, we can keep in touch with each other by telephone, email or text messaging.

FINANCE

As you may be aware, a substantial part of our income is received through collections at our regular services. Given the current circumstances we will not be able to receive such donations so we would be grateful if you would consider making your usual contribution by cheque or by standing order.

For more information contact the treasurer
Colin Gidman on 01565 722313

Opening for private prayer

From Monday 22nd June, St Oswald's is open for private prayer twice a week at the following times: Mondays 10.00am – 12 noon and Thursdays 12 noon – 2.00pm.

Please observe social distancing and hygiene guidance when you are in church. At this time we have no further news on resuming public worship. Any changes will be made public on our website peoverchurches.org.uk as they occur.

In our prayers...

At all our services we ask God's blessing on those known to us who are ill or infirm, particularly those with whom we have close connections as members of the congregation. If you would like to be named in our prayers of intercessions because you are undergoing treatment or know of someone who has requested prayer please contact Fr Murray or our Reader, Ann.

In Remembrance:

We give thanks for the life of Philip Barnshaw

Baptisms

We welcome into the church family

Amy Southern, Darcy-Grace Browning and Leo Vincent Lisgo

Daily Hope phone line

Daily Hope offers music, prayers and reflections as well as full worship services from the Church of England at the end of a telephone line.

The line is free and available 24 hours a day on 0880 804 8044.

Mother to young daughter after first day at school. “Well, dear, what did they teach you today?”

Daughter: “Not much. I have got to go back again tomorrow.”

Of course, Vicar, you are most welcome to some harvest milk. Would you like 4% fat, 3.5% fat, 1% fat, pre-treated, post-treated, homogenised, whole, skimmed, semi-skimmed or flavoured...?

Caring for the bereaved

The Church of England in Chester Diocese is launching a programme of additional support for people experiencing a family bereavement.

Bereaved families can still arrange Church of England funerals and, in addition, families will be offered the opportunity to organise a memorial or remembrance service at a time when we can freely meet again.

In normal times, the vicar would discuss with a bereaved family exactly how they would like to say goodbye. They would meet with them in person and discuss which music, Bible readings, and prayers they would like.

Much of this has not been able to happen because of restrictions limiting the length of a funeral. Social distancing measures have also reduced the number of people able to attend, and family members have been unable to hug and console each other, adding to their grief.

The Acting Bishop of Chester, the Rt Revd Keith Sinclair says we are living through an incredibly difficult time but urges people to know that the Church is there for them, whatever they may have been through, wherever they are.

“We are living through a profound moment for our nation and the world, the effects of which will be felt for a long time to come. “But the Church remains a constant Christian presence in every community and an anchor of hope for many. I would wish for everyone to know that the Church is here for you. Talk to us, we can help”.

“Contact your local vicar if you would like to talk to us about arranging a funeral, memorial service or attending a remembrance service, and the Church is here for you if you simply want someone to listen to your story.”

At Lower Peover, our Reader, Ann Barlow, is also licensed for bereavement ministry and is available to conduct funerals, particularly at this time when we have no vicar. She can be contacted on 01565 722989 or by email at hannbarlow@bopenworld.com if you would like to talk to her.

A second-year student was explaining to a first year student how to write essays: “When you take stuff from one writer, it is plagiarism, but when you take it from many writers, it is called research!”

St Oswald's Website

The website has been updated with new photographs and additional material. Thanks to Edwina, Tony, Marilu and Walton for their contributions. The Resources for Worship page is being updated every week with a reflection from Ann on one of the Sunday Readings. We also have a page on 'A Church Near You'. Do keep an eye on our websites for information on future activities including resuming services and welcoming the new vicar.

The Lockdown Lifts

There's life in the town! No longer 'locked down'!
The people stroll out in the sun.

The majestic trees sway in the light breeze,
like they wanted to join in the fun!

Like light after dark! We can walk in the park!
Buy our tea, and sit out on the grass!

We can chat to our friends as our loneliness ends
And we smile at the strangers we pass!

Yes. There are still queues which cease to amuse.
But things are no longer so black!

As they sing in that song – you miss what is gone,
But it's great when at last it comes back!

By Nigel Beeton

A cup of joy!

A tea shop is a wondrous place where I for one just love to be!
A place to rest from life's harsh pace and sit and drink a cup of tea!

Indeed, it's time to take a rest! from all life's pressures, take a break!
And just today it might be best to have a slice of home-made cake!

Meditation on the Good Use of Sickness

Lord, you are good and gentle in all your ways; and your mercy is so great that not only the blessings but also the misfortunes of your people are channels of your compassion. Grant that I may turn to you as a Father in my present condition since the change in my own state from health to sickness brings no change to you. You are always the same, and you are my loving Father in times of trouble and in times of joy alike.

Being the office supervisor, I had to have a word with a new employee who never arrived at work on time. I explained that her tardiness was unacceptable and that other employees had noticed that she was walking in late every day.

After listening to my complaints, she agreed that this was a problem and even offered a solution. "Is there another door I could use?"

He gave us eyes to see them:
'The Madonna of the Goldfinch'
by Raphael

The weeks and months of lockdown have been difficult and testing times for many of us, but they have also provided the opportunity to look afresh at the world of nature. With less traffic on the roads, less air pollution, and less noise pollution, the sky has somehow seemed bluer and the bird song more joyful and confident.

It is appropriate that we focus this month on one such bird noted for its liquid, tinkling song - the goldfinch. In this month we also celebrate the feast of the Nativity of the Blessed Virgin Mary on 8 September, and so the painting is 'The Madonna of the Goldfinch' by Raphael.

Raphael was only 37 years old when he died in 1520, but his work is marked by maturity and great beauty. No more so than in this painting which shows Mary with a young Jesus and John the Baptist. You could easily miss the tiny bird which is carefully held by John and gently stroked by Jesus, who has one foot resting on His mother's. It is an intimate, tender scene which was painted in 1505 as a wedding gift for Lorenzo Nasi. It was badly damaged by an earthquake in 1548, painstakingly restored in the early part of this century, and now hangs in the Uffizi in Florence.

As we look, we rejoice in the grace and simplicity of the scene. We look again and ask ourselves 'Why a goldfinch?' The bird has a red spot on its head, and legend tells that the goldfinch flew down to the cross of Calvary to take a thorn from the crown of thorns. As it pulled the thorn in its beak, its head was splashed with a drop of blood.

And so this painting of gentleness and innocence opens out into a wider canvas of redemptive love. Our thoughts move from infancy to the cross. Mary, sat on a rock, is reading 'The Throne of Wisdom', and the artist is inviting us to ponder where true wisdom is found. Here, as we look at the wonder of nature and new life with a mother and children, but also as we look ahead to the 'wisest love' of Jesus who is our Redeemer.
