Dear Friends,

It is that time of the month again when the vicar has your undivided attention and gets to witter on for five minutes about something that usually may or may not be of any interest to you at all. Well today I get to do something absolutely wonderful and that is introduce you to my new bestie.

After a year (can you believe I have been here a year already) I finally realised that the one thing that was missing in my life and subsequently yours (sorry about that) would be a new addition to the vicarage in the form of a four legged, hole digging in the lawn, sermon eating, barking at Adam the postie, leaving hair all over my cassock, howling through songs of praise, muddy puddle loving (usually after a bath) sock stealing, four legged friend, to add to what some may think is an already busy and slightly bonkers life! You have guessed it the daft vicar has only gone and landed himself a Collie Puppy.

So, a couple of weeks ago Pickles arrived to permanently take up her mischievous residence at the vicarage. Gone are the vicar's quiet moments of deep reflection and the ability to concentrate for any longer than three minutes in any given situation. There is a new beastie in town and she is most certainly living up to her name! Pickles by name pickles by nature!

So, when I was once again prompted to send my bit in to Lynda for this month's Parish Mag, I thought heck, I cannot believe the summer has almost gone and all I have seemed to have accomplished are the usual weddings, baptisms, garden jobs and now adding additional fencing around the vicarage garden to try and stop an ever inquisitive four-legged beastie escaping into the fields with the cows and sheep. Time does fly doesn't it.

So, we have come to September, the nights will be drawing in and the temperature will be dropping, and add to that there is the continued worry about this covid business too. I don't know about you but there is a real temptation to start feeling a little glum about it all. But actually, it is time for us to start getting a little excited not blue. By the time you read this the church will have just celebrated a joyous united service with our Over Peover family from St Lawrence's where we gave thanks for all the good things God has been doing in both our parishes; we are beginning to make plans to celebrate harvest in our churches and schools and we still have a number of blooming brides and nervous grooms to marry as well, and as far as Sundays go we will be throwing in a bit of divine sparkle thinking about the presence and curious roles of the angels. So, there are so many things to be planning for and celebrating this month.

September need not be all doom and gloom, it is really a time of joy and new beginnings, Pickles is having a new start at the vicarage and to a certain degree it is the same for the rest of us isn't it.

Back from holidays. Back to school, college or university. Perhaps even back to work, there are many things to be thankful for. OK perhaps were not quite back to normal, but we are getting there. I am most definitely going to be giving thanks for the beauty of the rural area in which we live. I give thanks because I know that things could always be so much worse; can you imagine what the past months would have been like if we did not have the beauty of our countryside, gardens and phenomenal villages around us. While we may have down days because of the way covid still affects the things we normally want to do, it does us good to give thanks for what we have and to also spare a moment to think of those who are not as fortunate as we are.

If you are going back to school, college or university, I trust that you will be able to settle down into the new routine and the new way of doing things quickly so that you can enjoy your time, the learning of new skills and building your knowledge. If you are going back to work after being furloughed, I trust that this too will be smooth, and you settle into the routine easily. Our work is not the be-all and end-all, it does not solely define who we are, but it is an important part of our lives. Rest assured that I and the lovely family at St Oswald's will be continuing to pray for you all as we enter this new season with all its joys and challenges together. Things may not be as they were; you may still have your worries but please remember that you are not alone. God is here, and so is a big warm welcome at the church too.

May we all then look forward to the weeks ahead as the season begins to change once again and may we all have our hearts warmed in the knowledge that in Christ who is lord of all, night and day, sun and moon, summer autumn and winter, we are truly loved.

Many blessings,

FrM.

PS say a little prayer for me too will you, pickles is now trying to eat my best slippers!

Children's Church

Children's Church takes place on the third Sunday of the month at 9.30am except in August. This is a short service with activities for families and is currently taking place outdoors. The next time we meet is on Sunday 19 September. If you would like to be kept updated on activities for families please email Ann (hannbarlow@bopenworld.com) to be added to the mailing list.

Safeguarding

St Oswald's and St Lawrence's take their duty and obligation to protect all extremely seriously. We have adopted the national Church of England's robust procedures and guidelines. You can find out more about the national policies and procedures at www.churchofengland.org/safeguarding. The Parish Safeguarding Officer for St Oswald's is Tracey Wallace. If you have any safeguarding concerns or issues concerning a safeguarding matter within the parish please contact Tracey in confidence on 07724 840753 or by email at ktwallace@hotmail.co.uk

In our prayers...

At all our services we ask God's blessing on those known to us who are ill or infirm, particularly those with whom we have close connections as members of the congregation. If you would like to be named in our prayers of intercessions because you are undergoing treatment or know of someone who has requested prayer please contact Fr Murray or our Reader, Ann.

Daily Hope phone line

Daily Hope offers music, prayers and reflections as well as full worship services from the Church of England at the end of a telephone line.

The line is free and available 24 hours a day on 0880 804 8044.

Dear Lord,

September – the month of new beginnings for many, as summer fades and school and college terms start. After such a strange time of restrictions, hopes of freedom, with warnings to be cautious, it is hard to know what to expect this September. We cannot know what lies ahead, Lord, but we can trust you to see us through whatever it turns out to be. Thank you for your promise: I will never leave you or forsake you (Hebrews 13:5). Help us to hold fast to that promise, to keep trusting you – and to be thankful for each September day. In Jesus' name. Amen.

FLOWER ROTA

There are still many more weddings to come at St. Oswald's this year and we will enjoy the wedding flowers.
There is only one date in September when there are no weddings and Iris Richardson will do the flowers on the 12th.
If anyone wishes to put flowers in church, there are always vases
on the Remembrance Book Table.

Repentance

Lord God, take pity on me.
During my infancy I ignored You;
During my boyhood I had no interest in You.
During my adolescence I pursued vain pleasures.
But now, Lord Jesus, I crave Your mercy.
I want to know You,
I want to understand Your truth,
I want to feel Your joy.

Spitfire

The heavens ring with Merlin's roar
We gaze in wonder from the ground
To see a great old aircraft soar
And marvel at the engine's sound.

The Spitfire loops and rolls and dives
We smile and gasp and clap and cheer;
The pilot shows his skill and strives
To make us think he has no fear!

No fear – but eighty years ago
Young men of barely adult age
Sat in those planes, true courage shown
They flew into the battle's rage.

They too would loop and roll and dive
Not to impress a watching crowd
But so that Britain might survive
And history shows they did us proud!

So many died within those planes
The watchers would with horror see
A blazing trail of smoke and flames
As brave men died to keep us free.

Yes – watch the Spitfire, and rejoice
Rejoice to see the pilot's skill.
Remember those who had no choice
But met the foe with iron will.

By Nigel Beeton

15th September, of course, is when we remember the Battle of Britain - to be precise the anniversary of the day on which the Battle turned in Britain's favour and Hitler realized that it would not be possible to invade without incurring huge losses from air attack. Covid permitting, the Spitfires will be up in the sky this month, and we will watch in wonder and gratitude.

Why is it that everyone can remember their childhood phone number, but cannot remember the password they set up yesterday?

In praise of motorway services

What have you got in common with the Beatles, the Rolling Stones, and Eric Clapton? You have all visited the Watford Gap Services on your way up or down the M1.

Back in the early 1960s, the M1 transformed the way that bands could travel, and visiting the service station was an integral part of their trip. In the 60 or so years since motorway services opened, they have also become part of life for tens of millions of us.

Motorway services not only provide a much-needed break from the road, they are also a great place for people-watching. All sizes, shapes and varieties of people can be found in one. As one journalist put it: “a motorway service station is the ultimate human zoo.”

Not everyone used motorway services back in the 1960s. Many people just pulled over onto the hard shoulder and unpacked a picnic. There was even the true story of the family who pulled their car onto the central reservation of the motorway to have lunch – and survived to tell the tale.

Motorway services also confused people. One distraught couple, heading north, reported their car had been stolen. The police found they had crossed the pedestrian bridge, and then could not find their car in the south-bound car park.

Today there are 111 service stations in the UK. The law states that they must not be more than 28 miles apart, or 30 minutes of travelling time. By law, they must provide two hours of free parking, free toilets, and a free play area for children.

The first two motorway services were Watford Gap and Newport Pagnell, both of which opened in early November 1959, along with the M1.

My dear Nephew Darren

On the perils of taking a wedding

As with many of your ideas, your intentions are admirable; it is just that they do not work.

So it was with the recent wedding in your church, where you allowed the happy but quite mad young couple to try and imitate the marriage of the Duke and Duchess of Cambridge. It was kind of them to want to celebrate Will and Kate's recent 10th wedding anniversary, but it did not seem to occur to anybody that your church, converted from a 1960s warehouse, is fractionally less impressive than Westminster Abbey. And I feel that a backdrop of a car park and canal make a poor substitute for the Houses of Parliament and the Thames. Finally, even 43 very enthusiastic young people can hardly pretend they are a congregation of several thousand.

However, I do applaud your decision to invite me to take it, in order to impart a degree of gravitas to the proceedings, though of course I would not presume to upstage the Archbishop of Canterbury. (Although were he to ask my advice on how to run the Anglican Church, I have several helpful suggestions to hand.) But even I struggled to keep things on a proper course when the bride, lacking a horse-drawn carriage, simply walked up the lane with her ancient pony. (Which then tried to bite me at the church door!)

Her arrival was greeted with music. I will pass no comment on this, as the Bible says we are to make a joyful noise, not necessarily music, unto the Lord. I am sure that drums and kazoos and guitars all have their place – somewhere or other.

It was a pity that the groom, unlike Prince William, had not thought to get to the church on time – or indeed, at all. It was fortunate that the bride's mother found him in that pub nearby, or really, we would have struggled to complete the wedding.

Please join the ‘St Oswald’s Lower Peover 100 Club’

Dating from 1269, St Oswald’s church has been central to the village of Lower Peover for centuries. Throughout that time, it has been the spiritual home of many people, and not just those living in the village itself.

It still fulfils that role today, a peaceful haven in an ever busier and complicated world. As a Grade 1 listed building, it enjoys a setting of particular importance, and the assumption is that it always will be. But escalating costs mean that we can no longer take that for granted. Buildings such as St Oswald’s are hugely expensive to maintain and ever-increasing running costs need to be found.

It is a sobering thought that our Parish Share (the money we pay to Chester Diocese for our church and a vicar) is £51,395. That is £988 each week. That is before any lighting, heating, maintenance etc. is taken into consideration, and, contrary to what many people still think, the State does not pay towards a church’s upkeep.

We launched the 100 Club in May 2008 and membership currently stands at 71, although it has been as high as 106. The club currently raises about £2,500 each year (after prizes) and really does make a huge difference to our resources. So far it has raised over £25,000 for the running costs of our church. And all for the minimal cost of £1 per week to members!

The 100 Club works in this way:

We collect £1 a week from each member per number held, which can be paid either as an annual fee of £52, or £13 per quarter, by standing order. Members are allocated individual numbers and each month two numbers are drawn. The first receives a prize of £70, the second receives £30. The remainder of the proceeds go to the church. You may individually hold more than one number and indeed, past winners have often had multiple holdings. It really is as simple as that!

The 100 Club is designed to appeal to regular churchgoers and those people who may not be able to worship regularly with us, but who also think it is important that the church remains open as an important part of village life.

We really would like to get our membership back up to at least 100 and hope that if you are reading this you may feel able to help – all for £1 per week! Please do join the 100 Club by completing the membership form at the back of this magazine or online at our website, and simply post it back to me.

Likewise, if you have any queries or questions about the 100 Club, please call me, Keith Phillips on 01270 878259 or mobile 07973 900032.
Email kphil61@hotmail.co.uk

Many congratulations to all our winners – and our thanks to all members who are currently supporting the 100 Club. Stay safe and thank you.

Gym?

Before setting off on a business trip to Birmingham, I called the hotel where I would be staying to see if they had a gym. The hotel receptionist's sigh had a tinge of exasperation in it when she answered.

"We have over 100 guests at this facility," she said. "Does this 'Jim' have a last name?"

A little girl had been to Sunday School for the first time and was asked by her mother how it compared with her new primary school. "Oh, I like it much better," she said. "There are no exams there, you go only once a week for an hour, and at the end you go to heaven instead of high school."

From a church report on renovations at a Youth Centre in Northants:
'The lift and the new windows are installed and the non-alcoholic bar is already plastered.'
